19. Processing of Personal Information and Entrant Consent

19.1. The privacy of the entrant is very important to the Promoter, and it will use reasonable efforts to ensure that any information, including personal information, provided by the entrant, or which is collected from the entrant, is stored in a secure manner.

19.2. The entrant agrees to give (where applicable) honest, accurate and current information about the entrant to the Promoter and to maintain and update such information when necessary.

19.3. The entrant's personal information collected by the Promoter may be used for the following reasons:

- the processing of personal information on the Promoter's website;
- further processing by third parties, including the fact that related parties of the company may access information on the Promoter's website;
- direct marketing;
- fraud prevention; and
- DGR reporting and the like if applicable.

- 19.4. The entrant acknowledges that any information supplied to the Promoter is voluntarily.
- 19.5. By submitting any information to the Promoter in any form the entrant further acknowledges that such conduct constitutes an unconditional, specific and voluntary consent to the processing of such information by the Promoter under any applicable law in the manner contemplated above, which consent shall, in the absence of any written objection received from the entrant, be indefinite and/or for the period otherwise required in terms of any applicable law.
- 19.6. Unless the entrant has consented, Promoter will not sell, exchange, transfer, rent or otherwise make available any personal information about the entrant (such as name, address, email address, telephone or fax number) to other parties and the entrant indemnifies the Promoter from any unintentional disclosures of such information to unauthorized persons.
- 19.7. Should the entrant believe that the Promoter has utilised the entrant's personal information contrary to applicable law, the entrant shall first resolve any concerns with the Promoter. If the entrant is not satisfied with such process, the entrant has the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator of South Africa.
20. The winner will be required to forward a certified copy of their Identity Document and details of their address to the Promoter within the time period stipulated by the Promoter. Every reasonable effort will be made to contact the winner, however if the winner does not respond to the notification/s and/or provide the required documents within 3 (three) days after the Promoter has informed them that they have won the prize, failing which the winner will forfeit the prize and the Promoter will be entitled to redraw to find an alternative winner.
21. The prize is not transferable or exchangeable to the maximum extent permitted in law, the Promoter and their subsidiary, holding, associated, related and inter-related companies are not liable for any defects in, or changes to, any part of the prize.
22. The Promoter may, after the winner has accepted the prize, and both before or after the winner of the Competition has been publicly announced, request that the winners permit the use of their image/s and/or name/s in their marketing material and / or participate in their marketing activities (including endorsing, promoting and / or advertising the services of, RocoMamas Advertising, or any of its subsidiary, holding, associated, related and inter-related companies) ("the Invitation"). The winners have the right to expressly decline the Invitation in the manner stipulated in this clause.
